SALES OF REALTY GAIN IN QUARTER WILDWOOD BY-THE-SEA For Your Summer Vacation. Booklet I. Whitesell. City Clerk, Wildwood, N.J.

Total of $14,300,000, Investments and Loans, Represents Increase of $2,000,000.

Investments in and loans on Washington real estate for the first quarter os 1917 reached $14,300,000, an increase of more than $2,000,000 over the corresponding period of 1916. During the last three months brokers closed 1,573 sales, in which were involved the transfer of 3,183 lots and parcels of real estate. In the first quarter of 1916 there were recorded 1,596 sales, including 2,964 lots.

While furnishing the highest total of investments, March, 1917, did not neasure up to its predecessors in the new year either in number of transactions or in volume of trading. Invest-ments for the last month totaled $5,300,000, but only 495 sales were effected and only 877 lots changed owhers. In Pebruary the brokers closed 507 sales, involving 1,209 lots, ward. Phone ( in January 571 deals were completed and 1,097 lots conveyed. Another slight increase in realty trading was noted during the closing days of March. In the last six days the brokers completed U29 sales, in which were comprised 284 lots and parcels of real estate.

"Soubrette Row" to Pass. The feature of the trading of the past week was the purchase of eight buildings-508 to 520 Thirteenth street northwest—by the Anchor Theatrical Corporation for a consideration of $200,000. The purchase marks the passing of "soubrette row," as the boarding houses included within the transfer are generally known. On the site it resident in the transfer are generally known.
On the site, it is said, a large motion picture house is to be erected. Premises 508½ was acquired from Franklin V. Killian for $25,000. The adjoinlin V. Killian for $25,000. The adjoining dwellings, 510 and 512, were bought from Mrs. Catherine F. Lannon for $40,000, it is stated, and the Caleb C. Williard estate conveyed premises 514 to 520 for $130,000. Deferred purchase money trusts to the extent of $150,000 were given by the new numer.

new owner.

Edmund K. Fox purchased the motion picture theater property at Twenty-first street and Pennsylvania Evenue northwest, known as Penn Gardens, for $142,000. The property was sold by Albert F. Fox and Clarence Corson, trustees, under a deed

James A. Becker took title to premises 618 F street northwest by deed from John Wedderburn. Only a nomfrom John Wedderburn. Only a nominal consideration was stated.

The week's trading was rather a evenly distributed, Thursday making the best showing, with twenty-six sales. Saturday's half-holiday ranked second, with twenty-five deals. There were twenty-one trades effected Friday, and a like number Tuesday.
Twenty sales were recorded Monday
and sixteen Wednesday.

Northwest property continued in the van of the week's trading, with ninetyseven lots to its credit, followed closely seven lots to its credit, followed closely by the outlying suburbs, where eighty-nine parcels changed owners. There were forty-four lots transferred in the near-urban district, twenty in the southrest, nineteen in the southeast, and fifteen in the northeast. Decline in Loans.

The loan market did not reflect the inincreased trading of the week, but showed a decline of nearly $30,000 from the record of the previous week. Exact figures in the loans of the last six days were $625,529.29, borrowed on the security of 211 lots at an average interest rate of 5.8 per cent.

Straight loans and deferred purchase straight loans and deferred purchase money trusts vied for the lead of the market, the former winning by leas than $40,000. The aggregate of straight loans was $250,857.29, while the sum of all the hoter straight the notes given for deferred payments on purchases totaled $23,472. Building associations advanced to members $142, ed for a total of $236,988. Land in the and R N. W.

KISS WINS RECRUIT

Girl's Offer Causes Rush of Enlistments on Broadway.

NEW YORK, March 31.—A. Clarke, of Brooklyn, was visibly moved by the eloquent recruiting speech Marid Flynn, the little prima donna who walks in her sleep—and in her pink pajamas in "You're in Love"—made from an automobile at the curb in front of the Casino Theater, where the Navy Department has opened a re-cruiting office. He listened with eager interest to her pictures of life on the bounding main and he applauded with enthusiasm her patriotic utterances,
"And furthermore," she said, by way of clinching the argument, "I will kiss the first man who signs up."

"Gangway, there:" shouted young Tlarke as his manly shoulders ploughed a path through the tightly packed crowd, "Glimme one o' them cards." When his trembling hand had signed the application the little Irish prima donna planted a resounding smack on his line.

Further remarks on recruiting were drowned in the ciamor for more cards. and the sidewalk was blocked with the struggling crowd so that the olice had to interfere.
